

It is known that people get involved with volunteer work for four basic reasons:

Social – to be with others
Intellectual – to learn more

Emotional – to give to others
Spiritual – to enhance & share with others

How did you hear about the Castlegar Hospice Society? _____

What led you to consider volunteering for Hospice? _____

Have you ever done any volunteer work? Please be specific _____

What are your special hobbies, skills, or interests? _____

How might the person closest to you react to your involvement with Hospice? _____

Would your involvement with Hospice cause a strain on family/ work responsibilities?

How would your best friend describe you? _____

Do you feel comfortable working with people of a different ethnic, cultural, or religious background? _____

Is there a weakness you feel you have relative to Hospice? _____